Order of Business

Agenda

- February Minutes
- Financial report
- Review of initiatives
- Set time and place for next meeting

February minutes

The February minutes were submitted, but as they had not been posted for review were not voted for approval.

Financial Report

Treasurer Sandy Stone reported that there were no changes in financials.

Review of initiatives and discussion

Restoration of Little Shack

No change. Ralph Pisaturo stated he was waiting for the drawing from Paul Hadley.

Gardens and landscaping

No change.

There was general discussion of the clean-up and planting scheduled for May at the February meeting. There was general discussion of contacting council woman Valerie Gillman requesting that the city trim the brush at the intersection of Andrews St and Lanes Cove Rd, along Lanes Cove Rd and at the intersection of Lanes Cove Rd and Duley Street. The members present commented that they had observed numerous occasions of near vehicle collisions as a result of the brush obstructing visibility.

Time/Place of next meeting

The next meeting was scheduled for April 7 at 10:00 AM at the Big Shack

Meeting adjourned

Ralph Pisaturo made a motion to adjourn. Craig Cervo seconded. All approved. The meeting was adjourned at 10:45 AM.

Respectfully submitted,

Craig Cervo

Secretary
