

Minutes of the Lanes Cove Historic Association (LCHA) October 1, 2022

Location: The meeting was held in Ralph Pisaturo's home.

Present at the Meeting: Present: Thaddeus Carpenter, Craig Cervo, Ken Doughty, Barbara Jobe, Chris Nulty (vice president), Ralph Pisaturo (president), and Julie Sablone (secretary).

The meeting was called to order by President Ralph Pisaturo at 10:07 and discussion during this meeting concerned the upcoming Fish Shack Festival to be held October 9th from 11 to 4.

There will be both a silent auction and raffle items available. Raffle tickets will be $3 each or 5 for $10.00 and individual jars will be placed in front of each auction item for ticket stubs. For the auction items, it was decided to start the bidding at $25.00 for each item (unless noted below). Winners will be chosen for both the auction and raffles at the close of the festival and people do not need to be present to win. People will be asked to write telephone numbers on the raffle stubs and on the auction sheets to help with notifying winners.

Items for the silent auction:

- Two engraved driftwood signs made by Ralph Pisaturo
- One piece of handmade pottery by Jan Weinshanker
- One donated painting by Edward Herman (value to be determined)
- Chris Nulty will donate one of his stone sculptures
- The book Hammers in Stone by Barbara Erkkila valued at $175. (After the meeting it was determined that a minimum donation for this item should be placed $75.)

Auction items will include:

- Two gift baskets made by Marissa Morris and Linda Storey
- $100 gift certificate to Beauport Hotel donated by Ken Doughty and Deb Colbert
- Any other gift certificates received before Sunday

Items to be for sale:

- Various baked goods
- Lanes Cove Yacht Club Tee Shirts - $25 each
- 4 framed pictures of the cove by Marie Pisaturo - $35 each
- Note cards - $3 each

Entertainment is to be provided by Ralph and Marie's daughter and her husband who will do one set of music and hopefully Ralph's son and friend will do 3 sets of 40 minutes each.

Ralph then listed all the places he will send notices to and Barb volunteered to place more posters around Gloucester.

Ralph then adjourned the meeting at 10:47

Respectfully submitted by:

Julie Sablone
Secretary
